I. & N. R. CO. TO SPEND TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, ADVERTISING

Most Elaborate Advertising Plan Yet For Gulf Coast
Season 1928-29—High Class Magazines and Newspapers to Be Used

Formally introduced by Warren Jackson, managing director Mississippi Coast Club, Morton Caldwell, vice president Chambers Advertising Agency, at New Orleans, was principal speaker before Bay St. Louis Rotary Club Wednesday noon.

Mr. Caldwell wished to confer and to tell of the elaborate plans his agency has in preparation for the Louisville & Nashville R. R. Company, with a view of advertising the Gulf Coast for fall and winter season.

The L. & N. Company, said Mr. Caldwell, has appropriated two hundred thousand dollars for an advertising campaign, covering a combined circulation of millions of readers, using only high class literary and travel magazines and secular newspapers. Of the magazines selected are the Literary Digest, Saturday Evening Post, Geographic Magazine, Home and Garden, Travel Magazine, Asia and others.

For magazines $75,000 will be expended and the balance $125,000 for newspaper and other publications. The scenic attractions will be especially stressed, said Mr. Caldwell, and polo, golf, boating and other outdoor attractions will not be lost sight of. "Your scenic beauty," said Mr. Caldwell to the reporter, "far surpasses many other spots of America, in fact, there are few spots in all America, if any, that can surpass the Gulf Coast in winter. The water, pines, oaks, roadways and long line of handsome residences and estates, hotels, all combine to make this section a veritable thing of beauty and not easily forgotten."

Original copies and dummies of advertisements to be used were displayed and it was easy to see that the ads were fetching and compelling. Half-tone pictures and striking text, sticking religiously to the truth, go to make a set of new and incomparable advertisements.

Mr. Caldwell is spending this week on the Coast, speaking before the different luncheon clubs and organizations, telling of this elaborate advertising plan which should bring thousands of visitors to this section who, otherwise, would never come this way.

It is the most colossal campaign of advertising for this section yet undertaken, and the L. & N. must be given credit for its enterprise.

B. A. WEEMS OF LAMAR COUNTY IS OUT FOR H'WAY JOB

Supervisor of That County Is Announced For Commissioner—Looks Good

"The fact that B. A. Weems, of this place," says the Weekly Booster, "who last week entered the race for highway commissioner for the 6th Congressional District is receiving strong backing in all parts of the district is very gratifying to his many friends in Lamar county."

Mr. Weems is known to be a capable business man and financier and one who is well fitted for the office which he seeks, as has been proven by past experiences.

In announcing Mr. Weems for office the Booster continues: "His record as a supervisor when he served his county is an outstanding monument to his ability, and his friends in Lamar county know that if he is elected Lamar county, as well as every other county in the district, will receive the just deserts in the way of constructive road and bridge building and in every way pertaining to the State Highway department."

"Mr. Weems has organized his campaign and is ready having placards posted and announcements run in the various papers of the district. Those who know Mr. Weems are familiar with his ability as being a man who has the undisputed reputation of getting a hundred cents worth for every dollar expended, whether it be personal or public funds."

"The idea is advanced here that Mr. Weems being a Lamar county man should receive very strong endorsement from his home county, as this is the first time that Lamar county has had a candidate for this office, or for any office so vital to the interests of so many people."

"From reports from over the district received daily by Mr. Weems, it looks as though his election is already assured. If this is the case we do not hesitate to state that the 6th District will have a Highway Commissioner who will devote his time and talent to the office, and will see to it personally that every dollar expended on highways and bridges will be spent in a businesslike manner and in a way that will bring the greatest good to the largest number of people."

NEWLY WEDS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Narcisse Mark Dick who were married recently and who spent their honeymoon in Louisville, Ky., returned to the Bay Wednesday morning and are located in an apartment at the Tulane Hotel.

CHANCERY COURT MEET ADJOURNS

Various Matters of Civil Court Disposed of By New Chancellor

Number of divorces granted by Chancellor Harvey McGehee, of the delta district, substituting Chancellor Griffith, who is on a campaign tour, featured the summer term of Hancock county chancery court which adjourned a few days since. The list of divorces was published in these columns last Friday.

In the matter of Anthony Loiacono and his wife Mary there was no divorce but a ratification by the court of an agreement whereby Loiacono is to pay alimony of $37.00 per month to care for three children by this second marriage.

W. L. Ladner will also pay his wife Mary Ladner $40.00 per month, coming under the same court heading. Mrs. Carlotta Polatssek Reynolds, Miss Sidonia Polatssek, Miss Nina Polatssek and Mrs. Gisela Polatssek, heirs at law of their mother, Mrs. Isabella Hahn Polatssek, who owned property in Bay St. Louis, on Front between Main and Court streets, and was accordingly allotted to them.

Ownership of the DeMontuzin drug store in the Bay was settled at this term of chancery court. Rene DeMontuzin being confirmed in the ownership of the contested property, which includes the ground on which the store stands, the operative business and all pertaining thereto. Rene DeMontuzin had previously owned half of this property and at the death of his brother, Alfred DeMontuzin, the will of the deceased left the other half interest to Rene DeMontuzin. When the will came to be probated question arose among the heirs as to the ownership of the property, whether it meant that half interest in the business alone or half interest in business, ground and store were included. The court ruled that business, land and all pertaining to the business belonged by reason of the will to Rene DeMontuzin. The suit in this case had been brought in the name of the administrator of the estate asking the court's interpretation of the terms of the will.

In a case regarding ownership of money on deposit, Lamar Asher was confirmed in owning $15,000, one half cash on deposit to the credit of his wife, Janie Asher, in her estate and the bank was instructed to pay him this sum.

Ethelyn M. Williams, Jacqueline Williams, Harriet Williams, Vincente D. Williams and Vincente Williams were recognized by the court as sole heirs of Ethel Leroy Williams. Vincente Williams had transferred certain lands in the county belonging to the estate in dispute, the other four heirs named above were confirmed in ownership of these lands.

Gladys Garcia was granted emancipation from Mr. and Mrs. Joe Garcia. E. J. Gex was named guardian for Josie Augustin, now a patient at the Louisiana State Insane Asylum. Mrs. Arthur Caron, guardian of three minor children was allowed an increase from $30 to $40 per month for the support of these children.

Clarence M. Williams, Jacqueline Williams, Harriet Williams, Vincente D. Williams and Vincente Williams were recognized by the court as sole heirs of Ethel Leroy Williams. Vincente Williams had transferred certain lands in the county belonging to the estate in dispute, the other four heirs named above were confirmed in ownership of these lands.

"We have been seeking this arrangement for some time," said John Chofone, well known and influential business man of New Orleans, "and to say we are delighted, to say nothing of the convenience and saving of time, is putting it mildly."

Clermont Harbor, due to its proximity to New Orleans, and excellent bathing and other advantages and facilities, is popular with New Orleans summer resorters, and it is no wonder the place is so fast building. It promises to be one of the most popular resorts for commuters on the Gulf Coast. This new train arrangement will augment the desirability of the place, add to its attractiveness and augment values.

Beautification Contest In Lee Town Community

The beautification and improvement contest which is being conducted in Lee Town community under the auspices of the community organization is progressing well with many of the residents actively participating in the contest, improving their homes and property and looking forward to the inspection which will be held September 15, by Dr. C. M. Shipp, county health officer and Miss Mayme O'Dom, home demonstration agent. The account of this contest in last Friday's Echo seemed to give the impression that the contest was being held throughout the county, but it is really restricted to the Lee Town community and is community organization project, which it is believed will be conducive of much good.

Frigidaire Demonstration.

A demonstration of the Frigidaire was given at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club recently under the auspices of St. Margaret's Daughters, which was well attended by a large number of those interested in this very popular piece of equipment for the home or business place. H. G. Cuevas and Mr. LeBlanc, local agents for the Frigidaire, were in charge of the demonstration. Mr. LeBlanc making the talk and showing the workings of the machine. At the close of the demonstration the tempting ice confections made in the Frigidaire were served by Mrs. Cuevas, Mrs. G. W. Madere and Miss Theresa Martinloch of Gulfport.

OSOINACHS IN DENVER.

Mr. and Mrs. John Osinach who left recently for Sacramento, Calif., and who spent a while with their son and family, A. J. Osinach, in Memphis, are now in Denver where they are enjoying a stay in the Colorado mountains.

SPENCE RE-ELECTED FOR MAYORALTY OF CITY ACROSS BAY

Pass Christian Executive Gets Big Vote—Other Candidates and Results

Mayor J. H. Spence of Pass Christian was reelected mayor for his sixth term at the city election yesterday, receiving 295 of the 447 votes cast. He defeated his two opponents, A. P. Saunders second received 133 votes, and E. F. Bourdin, 36 votes. For ten years Dr. Spence has been at the head of the local city administration and the people of the town again showed their faith in him by this fine majority.

In the race for alderman-at-large, Donald Demetz with 312 votes defeated Stanley Taylor, incumbent, who received 157 votes.

Herman Finhold, for the past year special traffic policeman of the Pass, was elected marshal with an overwhelming majority receiving 331 votes, the second largest individual vote received by any candidate. He defeated Robert Peralta who had 143 votes.

Leo McDermott, present tax collector, was reelected with the largest vote cast in the election, receiving 338, to 137 for John Lozes, his only opponent.

For alderman for first ward Herman Hanson, incumbent, was reelected by 84 votes, defeating his opponent, John Donlin, who received 32 votes.

P. A. McCollister with 86 votes and W. J. Hurst with 65 votes, will have to run off the race for alderman for the second ward. The third man in this race was W. T. Woods, incumbent, who received 25 votes. Mr. McCollister lacked four votes to have a majority. In the meantime, it was said, Mr. Moore was thrown into bankruptcy and the $1,000 debt to the Dyersburg people was made a part of the bankruptcy proceedings. Lawyers representing Mr. Moore were quoted as saying that they believed the criminal case against him was being used in an effort to collect a civil matter, and that matter of debt is non-collectible because it is in bankruptcy.

Mr. Moore offered a cash bond in Gulfport to appear in Dyersburg on demand, but the Tennessee authorities refused to accept the bond and had him go in custody of the deputy sheriff. He withdrew his petition for a writ of habeas corpus Monday morning and waived extradition, leaving on the afternoon train. It was said that he was prepared to supply $1,500 cash bond upon arrival in the Tennessee city.

Mr. Moore came to the Bay about two months ago and purchased the Lovejoy's Plumbing Company which he has successfully operated, making many personal and business friends since his arrival here, who desire to see him cleared of the charge now pending against him.

A. W. MOORE CHILD LOSES LIFE AS RESULT OF AUTO CRASH BRIDGE AND FRONT ST.

Helen Hudson of New Orleans Dies at Local Emergency Hospital as a Result of Auto Collision Saturday Morning

Mr. Moore, heating and plumbing contractor of Bay St. Louis who operates the Lovejoy's Plumbing Company, was taken to Dyersburg, Tenn., Monday afternoon on requisition of Governor Henry Horton of Tennessee, honored at Jackson Friday by acting Governor Bidwell Adam. Mr. Moore was arrested in Bay St. Louis and taken to Gulfport where he was retained in jail until the arrival of a deputy sheriff from Dyer county who escorted him to Dyersburg.

Mr. Moore was restrained from being carried to Tennessee Saturday through a writ of habeas corpus signed by County Judge George H. Murray of Harrison county, and an appeal was made unsuccessfully to Lieutenant Governor Adam to reverse his order to honor the requisition papers.

The arrest was made, according to the papers accompanying Governor Horton's requisition, which charged Mr. Moore with false pretense. It is understood that while Mr. Moore was operating as a plumbing and heating contractor in Memphis he secured a job at Dyersburg on which approximately $1,000 more was advanced than work done by Mr. Moore's company. In the meantime, it was said, Mr. Moore was thrown into bankruptcy and the $1,000 debt to the Dyersburg people was made a part of the bankruptcy proceedings. Lawyers representing Mr. Moore were quoted as saying that they believed the criminal case against him was being used in an effort to collect a civil matter, and that matter of debt is non-collectible because it is in bankruptcy.

Fournier, president of the Bay St. Louis circle of King's Daughters and Sons, the doctors of the city met Tuesday morning at the recently established King's Daughters Emergency Hospital for the purpose of discussing and formulating plans for the successful cooperation of physicians and King's Daughters in the conduct of the hospital. The doctors expressed themselves as being pleased with the equipment of the hospital where a new sterilizer has just been installed.

Those physicians present at the meeting were: Drs. H. S. Lewis, J. C. Horton, A. P. Smith, J. C. Buckley and D. H. Ward.

BAY CITY R. R. DEPOT WILL BE OF SPANISH OUTSTANDING TYPE

Building to Be Two Stories and to House Division Accounting Department—Work of Removing Water Tanks Begun

Water Tanks Begun

A new L. & N. railroad station for Bay St. Louis has been authorized by the head office at Louisville, Owen Crawford of the local L. & N. force announced this week. Just the time when contract for the station is to be let is not known at the Bay office but Mr. Crawford states that he believes that before a month has passed the contract will have been let and work ready to begin.

The plans for the station call for a building 125 feet long by 30 feet wide, to be placed lengthwise parallel to the railroad tracks and to be set further back from the tracks than the former station which was destroyed by fire, and to be placed some distance eastward of the former station. A shed adjacent to the building 40 feet wide is part of the plan.

The building will be two stories in height, the upper story being arranged to house the offices formerly in the old depot, namely, the accountant's office for the Mobile-New Orleans division, the road master's office, the assistant engineer's office, and the signal department headquarters for the division.

The material construction of the building will be of stucco over either brick or tile. The plans allow for a handsome building in the Spanish style which will be beautifully situated with a fine background formed by the attractive gardens about the railroad park which are exceptionally well kept.

As yet the local office has been furnished with no figures relative to the value of the new building; but Mr. Crawford states he believes that it will be better than a $50,000 cost involved.

Final estimates are not yet complete for the depot, the plan department having been delayed by special work for the shops in Mobile.

Work of removing the tanks south of the railroad is going forward, the frame work for the tanks already being constructed north of the tracks where the tanks are to be located. A. J. Catchot of Ocean Springs, supervisor of bridges and buildings for the division is in charge of the work. Jos. L. Gager is in immediate charge of work.

Helen Hudson, 11-year old daughter of Mrs. Mack R. Hudson of 1004 Aline street, New Orleans, died Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the King's Daughters Emergency Hospital, at Bay St. Louis as a result of injuries sustained in a most regrettable auto accident which occurred at 10:30 o'clock at the intersection of North Front street and Uman avenue, at the west end of the traffic bridge over the Bay of St. Louis. The auto in which Mrs. Hudson, two daughters, Helen and Maxie, 15, and a little foster sister, Jessie Lou, were traveling from New Orleans to Biloxi, was going east on Uman avenue, and a car driven by Miss Gertrude Perkins of Bay St. Louis, enroute to her home, was traveling north on Front street, and the two cars collided, in what was said to have been an unavoidable accident. Helen Hudson was sitting on the back seat of the car and was thrown against and through a side window. Helen Hudson had her jugular vein cut and was bleeding profusely. She was taken to the King's Daughters Emergency Hospital where three physicians, Drs. H. S. Lewis, C. L. Horton, and A. P. Smith, all of the Bay, were in attendance, she living about half an hour after the accident occurred. None of the others in the two cars were injured other than cut and bruised slightly.

Miss Perkins had just arrived in town from an extended automobile tour to Wisconsin and had just delivered to their homes the two children of Ebb Hardie who are spending the summer in Waveland, and Miss Perkins was enroute to her home when the accident occurred. She had not even stopped at her home and members of her family did not know she had arrived. She is pronounced to have been dead.

The body of the deceased child was carried to Biloxi by Fahey, undertaker from the Bay, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hilton at 303 Gill avenue. Mrs. Hilton is the maternal aunt of the deceased.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, 4 o'clock from the Hilton home, Rev. Ben Ingram, pastor of the First Baptist church, Biloxi, officiating, and she was interred in the family plot in Biloxi cemetery beside her father and brother.

Helen had a brother, Harry, 18. Her father died in January, 1927. Helen is the sixth child lost by her mother, and the second to die a violent death, her brother having been shot. She was a pupil at Howard school, No. 2, New Orleans.

LIFE IS GETTING LONGER.

A study of statistics will show that in the last 50 years fourteen years have been added to the average expectancy of life. Today there are in Hancock county proportionately many more persons over thirty than there were in 1870. This also holds good for those over the age of fifty.

A diminishing birth rate has been noted during the same period so that today young people, proportionately are not as numerous as they were fifty years ago. Perhaps this explains the keen interest being taken in youth and the reluctance with which grandparents admit old age. It is apparent to any observer that the people of Hancock county as well as those in other sections, apparently retain their youthful outlook longer than the people of fifty years ago. As a matter of fact, the interest in old age, merely in itself, has decreased considerably in recent years.

PRINTING AND BRICK-MAKING BUNK.

Claiming politics, E. C. Winston, first vice president of the Mississippi Press Association, in annual session at Gulfport last week, because the association went on record and actively opposed Gov. Bilbo's proposed text-book printing plant, resigned and said he was done.

Winston's resignation was promptly accepted and the association was freed from a disturbing element. The truth of the matter, is not one of politics, but purely an economic question, and as such the Association did not overstep its bounds nor the lines of propriety, but asserted itself in such proper manner and has not only gone on record with its position but by organized effort and armed with that mighty weapon of right has gone to work to prevent Mississippi to suffer disastrous result to follow state and tax-payers, as Gov. Bilbo's pet theory, if adopted, would prove.

The fallacy of fostering a bond issue of over a half million dollars for the building of such a printing plant on to the already overburdened backs of Mississippi tax payers, to say nothing of the fallacy of the state going into private business and in competition with those who already pay the state tax stipend, is not only fallacious but a menace and a dangerous precedent, and it is hoped when the Legislature meets in special session the subject will be shelved for all time and junked with Bilbo's idea of brick-making by the state for paving of highways. If the matter were not so serious in its last analysis, it would be extremely ridiculous.

ASSASSINATION IN MEXICO.

Gen. Alvaro Obregon, president-elect of Mexico, having been assassinated, the situation in that country becomes somewhat difficult. To judge Mexican public men by American standards is almost impossible because of the different type of citizens with which they deal. Generally, however, Gen. Obregon has been recognized outside of his country as a friend of the average Mexican and an able leader of his people.

Some idea of what he had in mind for Mexico may be gathered by reading a short statement attributed to him: "I would rather teach the Mexican people the use of a toothbrush than how to handle a rifle. I would rather see them in schools than upon the battlefield. I prefer any day a good electrician, machinist, carpenter, or farmer to a soldier."

Gen. Obregon might be aptly called the father of the present reform that is remaking Mexico. He left the farm to lead the revolt which placed Carranza in office and he led the revolt that unmade him. He was president until Calles succeeded him and had been elected for another term. That he intended to rigorously carry out the Calles policies had been announced, but that was not strange, Calles was only doing the same in regard to the Obregon policies.

Just what effect his death will have is hard to say. Just who will be the next president of our southern neighbor is uncertain. The way ahead is doubtful. Only a stern hand can prevent disturbance, but President Calles seems to have the situation under control.

BREATH OF SCANDAL ON P. M. PATRONAGE.

Recent investigations by federal court proceedings at Biloxi relative to dispensation of Republican patronage discloses a most corrupt method of procedure regarding postmaster appointments.

A number of indictments resulted and indications point strongly to the charge that in several instances cash money was paid in return for appointments.

Since Perry Howard, negro party leader in this state, head of a faction passing the loaves and fishes around, comes under the stigma of the charges, at least, and the outcome will be watched with more than ordinary interest.

If proven true, the scandal is such as to injure the party and many who are voting for the man Hoover and for the party, will, in the last analysis, as a rebuke to such method repudiate their personal presidential preference and vote for Smith, even Democrats (?) who are pleased to call themselves national Republicans.

Charges are that there has been a wholesale barter of offices for money, and if these and subsequent indictments are sustained, as there is every reason to believe they will, the stigma will work havoc and party predilection will be cast aside.

TOLL OF THE AUTOMOBILE.

A few days since the streets of our city bore the stains of where the crimson blood of a precious young life had been spilled and ebbed away to its very last drop as a result of an automobile mishap.

The anguish of a widowed mother knew no bounds, the community was saddened and every individual suffered the depression of the pall that followed. Unavoidable as the collision seemed there are too many fatalities of this sort, not all of which are attributed to loose gravel. There must be an increased vigilance set up in order to minimize this awful toll. We hope nothing of the kind will ever occur again in these parts, or, elsewhere, for that matter.

Our sympathies go with the drivers of both cars.

WATCH THE ADVERTISER.

When a citizen opens a business in Bay St. Louis he has a right to look for cordial co-operation of all citizens here. They should, as far as business judgment warrants, give him their business. Let every good citizen bear this in mind.

Advertisers in The Sea Coast Echo are those business men who insist that you come to see them. Every time they put an advertisement in our columns they invite the public to judge them on their merits. No merchant advertises unless he thinks he has the goods; as loyal boosters for Bay St. Louis it is the business of every Bay St. Louis builder to see where he is right before giving business to other sections.

CAPT. CARRANZA'S DEATH.

The death of Capt. Emilio Carranza, the Mexican good-will flier, caused real grief not only in his own country but in the United States, as well. Here was a young man, emulating our own illustrious Lindbergh, and capturing the imagination of his people by bold flights. Following Lindbergh's successful trip to his capital the Mexican came to the United States in return and died in the beginning of an attempted non-stop flight from New York to Mexico City.

BUSINESS SUPPORTS CULTURE.

The good old summertime is just as good as any other season for considering the future of the business interests of Bay St. Louis.

The growth of this community depends, absolutely, upon its money income. Without a source of revenue educational and other social enterprises perish from non-support.

This Week.*Stone Age Mummies*The Greatest Magnet*Rockefeller Sees Kindness*War Does Not Pay*BY ARTHUR BRISBANE.

(Copyright, 1927)

Mammoths, extinct thousands of years, have been found preserved, skin, hair, flesh, in Northern ice. Hoping that men of the Stone Age might be similarly preserved, an expedition was sent to look.

On an island, far north in cold Alaska, scientists discovered at the top of an almost inaccessible cliff the grave of an ancient Stone Age chief.

His coffin was lined with well cured skins of the sea otter. His shirt was of bird skin, his clothing made of the finest furs. A favorite child, a seamstress to sew for him, a servant and hunter to get game for him, had been killed and buried with him to accompany him on his death journey.

This mummified family from the Stone Age will enlighten scientists. It interests us all, illustrating the unconquerable belief in a future life so deeply planted in the human brain.

Why was the belief put there if only to be disappointed?

The French government builds a gigantic magnet several thousand times as powerful as any built thus far.

It will be used in scientific experiments in connection with the molecular and atomic construction of matter, etc. The magnet will eventually be of great use in industry.

Here the steel companies use magnets picking up tons of steel rails and loading them on cars, dropping them down, lifting them up, as a boy lifts tacks with his toy magnet.

Man is an intelligent animal, living on a gigantic combination power wheel and magnet the earth. He constructs his own little power plant, builds his own electric and magnetic power.

In the north day before yesterday man's electric work felt an electric storm, and an amazing aurora borealis, stretching all across the northern part of the continent. If men could borrow and use the inexhaustible electric power of the earth, they need not turn coal or water falls into electric current.

John D. Rockefeller, beginning his nineteenth year, said, "I never worry, and I am amazed at the kindness of people generally."

Eighty years ago, from his father's cottage doorway, in the Catskill foothills, he watched his uncle drive off, to trade horses—and saw him come back with better horses.

Now his ships go out to every harbor of the world, his scientists are fighting disease in every part of the earth. And looking at his right hand, now wrinkled, he knows it has made gifts to education and human progress totaling hundreds of millions.

A good deal in one life time.

Thomas W. Lamont, partner of J. P. Morgan, and an able citizen, tells business men they can be a distinct factor in preventing future wars.

They can and will be, for they have discovered that war, in the past often promoted by business, DOES NOT PAY.

Another big war would mean not merely sixty per cent income tax, but confiscation of principal, on a gigantic scale. Young men would not again consent to have their bodies sent to war, unless the rich man's dollars also went. Wise business men will oppose war and demand preparation for it.

DR. FRANK CRANE
WATER-TIGHT COMPARTMENTS.

Every once in awhile we hear a man say, "Business is business," or that he follows "art for art's sake," or that he as a scientist cares only for the truth, not for its practical results, and so on. But the fact is humanity is not put in water-tight compartments.

Everything you do affects all parts of your nature.

What you do in business reflects on your art, what you do in art colors your business, and what you think in religion has much to do with your scientific conclusions. Mankind is one, one organic whole and its various departments of activity have merely been listed for convenient reference. They do not exist in reality.

If your religion is ugly and cruel your business will be immoral. If your business is heartless and vindictive your whole life will show it.

The scientist must pay some attention to the practical beatings of his investigations, for it would be foolish for him to spend his whole life on investigating some perfectly useless matter.

Business must be beautiful. Art in some way must rest upon a business basis.

A man cannot have his whole head, submerged in literature, he must have sense enough to market his wares.

The beautiful works of art of past generations had their influence upon believers in religion and religion is what is owing to a thousand other cause within itself.

Much recent art shows contempt for any but aesthetic values. Such art is transient, and will give place to a greater art, in which beauty of thought and expression will confer enlarged values.

The total of all value is what counts. This result can be achieved not by preaching in art nor by making science "practical," but by universal education in values so that artist, business man, or scientist will express himself in synthesis of all values.

SEAWALL PROJECT FIRST ORIGINATED BY GROUP OF PEOPLE IN BAY ST. LOUIS

Colossal Seawall Projects For Entire Coast Now An Accomplished Fact—Supervisors United In Outstanding Improvement

"The Emerald Coast Lines" of Hancock, Harrison and Jackson Counties, in the State of Mississippi, are about forty miles in length along the Gulf of Mexico, and Bay of St. Louis. Along these beautiful shores lie the cities of Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, Gulfport, Biloxi, and farther up the line, Ocean Springs and Pascagoula.

The very essence of the "spirit of Progress," ambition, love of advancement, and community beautification is best exemplified, when we state that the population of this forty-mile stretch took it upon themselves to permanently protect their beautiful coast line from the ravages of tempestuous tide and wave, (fortunately a rare visitation) by the building of a modern, up-to-date and beautiful seawall of steel and concrete.

This Gulf Coast seawall, counting the space at the bottom, and the top seat, consists of ten tiers of steps, continuous, and facing the Gulf and Bay, for a distance of from thirty to forty miles. To grasp the immensity of this project,—with the same expenditure of money,—with the same quantity of materials,—this seawall were built in circular form, with tier on top of tier, it would comprise the world's greatest stadium or amphitheatre, and would be capable of seating 1,500,000 at one and the same time.

It is understood that the Mississippi Legislature has now enacted legislation which places virtually unlimited power in the hands of the Boards of Supervisors of Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties, to erect additional seawalls along the coast, construct paved highways or road protection pavements, and levy a three-cent special tax on gasoline for the purpose of financing such construction projects. The measure also carries a provision that property owners privately constructing seawalls, the cost of which was assessed against their property may be refunded this expenditure and the payment for such seawall be made from the gasoline tax.

It is understood that the first seawall project in this section of the Mississippi Coast County was started some twenty years ago, when a movement was launched, headed by T. L. Trawick, and including property owners, R. J. Williams, Chas. Episcopal Church, Adam Leach, Sr., Mrs. R. E. Johnson, Mrs. D. H. Doyle, L. A. DeMontluzin Sons, C. G. Moreau, William Ames, and F. C. Bordages, Sr. This movement crystallized and eventually it became a reality when the first span of steel and concrete was built, forming the city's initial section of seawall, at Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, later reinforced with a concrete footing, which has since withstood all pressure brought to bear by varying elements occasionally, and to preserve the graceful line and tree-dotted fringe of shore.

The Mississippi Coast seawall of Harrison county was dedicated on May 10th, 1928. Proclamations were issued by the Mayors of Gulfport, Biloxi, and Ocean Springs, and Long Beach, calling upon the citizens of these places to participate in the dedication. Governor Bilbo of Mississippi was present at the dedication. Many Mobile officials and business men, including Mayor Leon Schwartz, City Commissioner Cecil F. Bates, and Senator John Craft, from Mobile, Alabama, attended the celebration. The trip was made from Mobile by automobile over the wonderful concrete highway from Mobile to Gulfport.

Considerable activity marks the process of constructing a seawall for Waveland, and on southward, to and including Lakeshire, on over to the north end of Bay St. Louis, to a point at Bayview Lakeshire, Jackson County, Mississippi, has fallen into line, and similar constructions have begun for Ocean Springs and Pascagoula.—American Riviera Review.

B. A. Weems Is Announced.

B. A. Weems, known to his many friends as "Ben," for the past thirty years, has announced his candidacy for the office of Highway Commissioner for the sixth Mississippi district, which includes the counties of Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Covington, Jones, Wayne, Marion, Lamar, Forrest, Perry, Grenn, Pearl River, Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, George and Stone.

Mr. Weems believes himself fitted by his experience as board of supervisor member with road building in the section which he desires to serve. It is understood that while supervising in Lamar county, when that county had on a good roads campaign Mr. Weems not only kept the roads in good condition but left several thousand dollars in the treasury when the term was finished.

The position of highway commissioner pays no salary but Mr. Weems is able with his income, to support himself and family while giving this public service.

It is selected to serve in this capacity Mr. Weems promises to give the 6th district as good a road system as can be built by an honest capable expenditure of every dollar available for roads.

He holds active membership in the Old Fellows, Elks, Woodmen of the World, Mason and Shriner. His home is in Purvis, his business office in Hattiesburg.

L. A. TO ELIMINATE LOOSE GRAVEL FROM EVERY HIGHWAY

Paving of Old Spanish Trail and Other Highways to Be Undertaken by State

Under date line of July 20, the Times-Picayune of New Orleans, printed the following regarding possible highway paving of the road from New Orleans to the Coast over the Old Spanish Trail, contingent upon the passage of the four-cent gasoline tax which will come before the legislature in November:

"Elimination of loose gravel on every highway of the state will be undertaken by the Highway Commission without delay, and the paving of the Old Spanish Trail, the Jefferson Highway to Baton Rouge and the New Orleans-Hammond Highway will be the first work undertaken if the four-cent gasoline tax is ratified by the people, it was announced by Governor Huey P. Long while in New Orleans Thursday.

"The first work of the Highway Commission," Governor Long said, "will be to stop the dangers of travel on our loose gravel roads by applying a binder. This will curb the traffic toll now being taken in fatal accidents from skidding in loose gravel."

"After the people ratify the gasoline tax amendment at the congressional election in November, we expect to begin immediately the work of hard-surfacing our state highways. The work will be let by contracts but the contracts must be approved by the legislature and the state board of liquidation. It will be the aim of this administration to pave every important road in the state just as fast as it can be done. Out of New Orleans, the first roads to be paved will be the Old Spanish Trail, the line to Mississippi on the east and to Texas on the west. Then will come the Jefferson Highway to Baton Rouge; the road running north from the city through Poydras and the Florida Parishes. Others will follow in rapid order."

Supt. Ingram Heads Summer Normal at Waveland.

An opening exercise was held at the school Tuesday morning at which Mr. Ingram, Dr. C. M. Shipp and County Superintendent D. J. Everett were present.

Letters From The People.

OLD SPANISH TRAIL AGAIN.

Editor Sea Coast Echo: I note your editorial in the "Sea Coast Echo" of Friday, July 20th, headed, "Old Spanish Trail." In this editorial is specifically stated, "This roadway has been rehabilitated and is again in splendid condition."

I recently purchased a home over at the Bay and for the past few months, have been driving over every Saturday morning and returning on Monday morning to the city. On account of the condition of the road, I have been compelled to arrange to purchase another automobile, so as to leave it over at the Bay, because I find it impossible to safely make the trip to and fro.

A trip on the road this morning shows no improvement. On the contrary, they have added in a great many places, dirt to the gravel, which has caused a great deal of slush to accumulate on the road. A few months ago while making the trip over the lake, a piece of gravel from another machine was thrown against the windshield of my car, causing the pupil of my left eye to be so severely cut, that I have a permanent injury. There are five breaks in my windshield from gravel, which have caused various trips, was thrown up against it.

A great many of my guests who motor over to the Bay, have refused other invitations to come over, much against their will, because they all have appreciated the road conditions, so as to cause the proper reaction against those who control the maintenance of this road. It is my belief that the Gulf Coast, particularly Bay St. Louis, will not receive the full benefit of the free bridges until the Old-Spanish Trail is put in good condition, and I think that this end will be best served by putting the facts before the public, so as to cause the proper reaction against those who control the maintenance of this road.

Yours very truly, GEO. DANZIGER. Editor's Note: Mr. Danziger shows have played havoc with the Trail and no amount of attention will prove of permanent value. Time and test has proved this. There is, apparently, only one remedy, and that is a hard-surfaced road of concrete. It is up to the Mississippi Highway Commission, and not to local boards or home officials as so many erroneously conclude.—The Editor.

BASEBALL VICTORY IN QUESTION.

Editor Sea Coast Echo:

In last week's issue of your paper you published a letter from the manager of the Lakeshire baseball team, claiming a victory over the Maccabees in a game played on Sunday July 15th, also giving you his reasons for claiming the victory. We have listed in the same paper the baseball fans of the Lakeshire managers letter in doubt as to who really won the game. As one of the managers of the Maccabees, the results of the game are not in our score book and the manner in which it was played. Mr. Yarborough claims that they allowed us to steal a run which we were not entitled to, if he as manager knew that we were not entitled to the same right on the spot, we are agreeable and always try to play according to rules.

He claims that in their half of the tenth inning Whop Glover was on third base, one man out, and Nolan Lader on first base. Nolan Lader on first base who throws wild to third in an effort to catch Whop off, the ball going way back and was stopped and thrown back in by a player who was not in the game. We'll say that it is true, but on the line drive Whop was caught in between bases, therefore he was forced back to third, and when the ball went wild he immediately turns around without touching up on third and goes on, crossing the plate and at that time should have been out. Now, we will admit that a player outside the game picked up the ball and threw it back in, this is considered a dead ball. Can you score on a dead ball? I believe we acted fair by allowing him to go back to third base.

He also claims that Nolan Lader led off in the ninth, scoring the tying run and Cotton Collier was left on base. This is true, we do not dispute it. P. J. Collier, T. Bourgeois and Alex Capelich followed Cotton. These three men went out in order, leaving Cotton on base, exactly five men to bat in that inning. Now in the last half of the tenth H. Choina led off reaching the base safely. Next up, Jimmie Collier who relieved Tom Luc in if, walked to first on balls, advancing Choina, to second. Next in batting order was Russell Lader; this is when Mr. Yarborough stood over satisfied at that time that we were not rushing bats, and could not have led off as Mr. Yarborough claims. We are entitled to the victory as per the help of the Maccabees.

Thanking you for past write-ups of our games, I remain, Respectfully, Fred E. Fayard, Bus Mgr. The Maccabees B. B. C.

PASS CHRISTIAN

From the City Across Bay St. Louis.

TAKE PART IN PLAY.

C. J. Gordon of Bay St. Louis was the star actor of the presentation of the musical comedy, Here Comes Abella, which was presented Friday night of last week at the city hall, Pass Christian, by local cast aided by several Bay St. Louis actors, under the auspices of the Mother's Club of St. Joseph's Academy of the Pass.

Young Gordon who had played this same part when the play was given in the Bay several months ago was especially fine in his part. Miss Fannie Marquez of the Bay, who played the part of Debby, one of the maidens sisters, was said by those who witnessed the play to be one of the finest characters in the entire production. Miss Nola Lazanno, also of the Bay, gave a fine performance, playing the part of Mrs. Wadley. Other parts in the play were taken by Pass Christian actors and the cast included the following:

Robert Allen as Syd Haywell; William Hursey, Jr., and Anderson McCollister as Jack and Jill; Misses Alice Hursey and Effie Terrell as Inogene and Henrietta; Miss Isabel DeMez as Crystabel; William Mevius as Josh; Miss Della Tullio as Prudence; Miss Florence Benevidas as Arabella; Woodrow Benevidas as Levinski; Miss Mary Margaret Johnson as Mrs. Meeks and Miss Dorothy Riggs of Long Beach as the chorus girls. The chorus followed: Chorus Girls: Marie Courtenay, Nathalie McCollister, Mildred Namias, Irene Northrop, Eunice Necaise, Catherine Dedeaux, Katharine Hayden, Eugenia Nix.

BAY EMPLOYE INJURED

G. W. Martin, an employee of the Southern Paving Construction Company, engaged in work on the highway in Hancock county from Bay St. Louis to Waveland, while enroute from his home in Biloxi Monday morning early in his work in the Bay, was injured in an auto accident on the Old Spanish Trail between Pass Christian and the Bay, when the truck in which he was riding and which was driven by a negro whose name was not learned, struck a tree on the side of the road, overturning. It was said that the negro went to sleep while driving, letting the car crash into a tree. Mr. Martin was taken to the King's Daughters Hospital, Gulfport, by a passing motorist, before the ambulance, which had been summoned, arrived. He suffered a fracture of the right arm, shoulder and other cuts and bruises. At first it was thought that he suffered internal injuries but later examination showed nothing serious internally. Mr. Martin moved to Biloxi about two years ago with his wife and children, coming to the Coast with the Southern Paving Construction Company.

LT.-GOV. ADAM INVITED.

Lieutenant-Governor Bidwell, Adam of Pass Christian, again acting governor of Mississippi last week in the absence from Mississippi of Governor E. B. Bilbo, received an invitation several days ago from Commander Edward E. Spafford of the American Legion national organization at Indianapolis, to be one of the ten speakers chosen from the entire United States to address at the national convention of the Legion in San Antonio, October 8-11. The subject which he was asked to discuss is: "The Preamble of the Constitution of the Legion." Mr. Adam said he would accept the invitation.

PLAYING THE RACES.

A raid in Pass Christian by Deputy Sheriff Wentzell and Van Zandt Friday of last week discovered a bookmaking establishment with the betting on horses in progress and with nearly a score of participants, the game found in a garage fronting on Front street and said to be run by one C. G. Bilbo. The place was open with seats arranged for spectators in plain view of the street. Benny French was said by officers to be in charge and he with a number of men arrested were taken before Justice of the Peace McHenry, who fined each $5, all paying their fines. The place used a telephone for receiving returns on races, it was said, and blackboards lined the walls where the spectators and betters saw the progress of the races as the information was received.

Much interest has been manifested in the annual Mississippi Coast Tennis Tournament being held all along the Coast this week, culminating in the semi-finals held at the hotel, the Miramar, Pass Christian, Saturday and finals Sunday on the same court.

The tournament opened with 40 entries from all parts of the Coast. Among those registering for play and drawing for places from Bay St. Louis were: E. S. Shields, Miss Charlie Swoop, Miss Gertrude Perkins. Other contestants were from all parts of the Coast, New Orleans and Columbus. Miss First round of play were completed Tuesday. Quarter finals were played Wednesday and Thursday.

Handsome trophies will be awarded Sunday to winners. Among those donating trophies were: Hancock County Bank of Bay St. Louis, A. B. Hayden, Inc., D. B. Allen, cashier of Bank of Pass Christian, Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and L. L. Lazar.

The tournament is under the auspices of the Pass Christian Tennis Association of which Miss Anna Louise Liverson is president; Miss Georgia May McGlathery, vice-president; Miss Eunice Holliman, secretary and Miss Jane Northrop, treasurer.

An auto owned and driven by Arthur Lang of Gulfport, and containing as passengers, Mike Gridley of Gulfport, Leo McDermott, Frank Wittmann, Herman Finhold, John McDonald, Jr., and Benny French, all of Pass Christian, overturned Tuesday night at the intersection of Seal avenue and Front street. The Lang car was coming south on Seal avenue and in making the turn into Front street in order to avoid striking an approaching car on Front street made a sharp turn, overturning. None of the occupants were seriously hurt, those cut and bruised the worse being Benny French, Mike Gridley, Frank Wittmann and Arthur Lang.

HARRISON COUNTY HAS NEW AGRICULTURAL AGENT, AUGUST 1

J. V. Pace Succeeds H. H. Leggett—From Noxubee County, Serving 6 Years

Harrison county has chosen J. V. Pace as the new county agricultural agent, to succeed H. H. Leggett, who resigned from this position some time ago. Mr. Pace will assume his duties August 1.

He comes to Harrison county from Noxubee county, where he has been agent for the past six years and has been in the forefront of the ranks of agricultural counties through his able assistance to farmers. He is a native Mississippian, a graduate of the A. & M. College, and for several years served as supervisor for North Mississippi of 4-H Club work for boys and girls. During the six years he was agent in Noxubee county there was built in that county a milk plant, largely through his agency, and his county took high rank in poultry raising.

The selection of Mr. Pace was made by Harrison county board of supervisors last week.

Mirrors of Mississippi

By Edgar S. Wilson

Jackson, Miss., July 25.—The law provides that the State Board of Education Commissioners, consisting of the governor, the secretary of state, and the attorney-general, shall, two months before the general election, which takes place on November 6, 1928, name a board of election commissioners of each of the eighty-two counties in the state. This board shall consist of three discreet persons who are free holders—meaning they must be owners of real estate—and electors in the county in which they are to act, who shall not all be of the same political party if such men or women of different political parties can be conveniently had in the county.

Such county election commissioners are to continue in office for two years unless removed and until their successors are appointed, one of whom shall be designated in his commission to have the official ballot printed and distributed. Each of the commissioners, before acting, is required to subscribe to the oath of office prescribed by the constitution and file the same in the office of the chancery clerk. While engaged in their duties, the county election commissioners shall be conservators of the peace in the county, with all the duties and powers of such.

It would perhaps be well for those applying for appointment as county election commissioners to make it clear to the State Board of Election Commissioners, composed of Governor Billo, Secretary of State Wood, and Attorney-General Knox, that they are qualified electors, that they have paid all taxes required of them by the constitution on or before February 1, 1928, and to show also that they are holding no other office as those already holding office are not eligible as county election commissioners. It is understood that the State Board of Election Commissioners will name county election commissioners during the month of August.

The National Democratic Convention which nominated Smith and Robinson for president and vice-president at Houston incorporated in its platform a strong declaration for reforestation, conservation and the suppression of forest fires, showing that this is a burning issue throughout the nation. Millions and millions of dollars have gone up in smoke caused by fire from rabbit, coon and possum hunters, not to mention the careless throwing of cigar stubs and cigarettes along public highways.

Happily sentiment has crystallized in an unmistakable way to stop the wanton waste of timber old and young. It is stated that farmers throughout Mississippi are protecting pine saplings on abandoned fields. They appreciate the fact, as stated

Hancock County Demonstration Work for Colored Women and Girls.

A very successful two day cooking school was held Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. H. Lott, a native of Pike county, an eminent authority on all economic questions, that on all economic questions, that boards from pulp made from small trees grown quickly will soon substitute largely for time-sawn from trees reaching maturity for the saw only after long years of standing, and that land covered with a new growth ten years old will be worth more in dollars and cents than they were twenty-five years ago when they bore virgin forests. Nature is heaving with the urge to clothe the land and will do it if man will seed.

Having stated that Hon. A. J. McLaurin was the first native Mississippian ever elected United States Senator, and is the only native Mississippian ever elected both governor and United States Senator, I am asked what other native Mississippians have been elected United States Senators. The first native Mississippian, after McLaurin to be United States Senator was Hon. H. D. Money, born in Home county. The next United States Senator born in Mississippi was Sullivan of Lafayette. Gordon and Percy were native Mississippians, the former born in Pontotoc, and the latter in Washington. Harrison and Stephens are both native Mississippians. Harrison was born in Copiah county and Stephens in Union. Williams was born in Tennessee. Vardaman, both governor and senator, was born in Texas.

Mayor W. A. Scott of Jackson was renominated for the fourth term without opposition in the recent primary showing the esteem in which he is held by the men and women of the capital city. Commissioners R. M. Taylor and A. F. Hawkins, who have also seen long service, were both renominated by a vote of some four to one, there being only one opponent. The people of Mississippi seem prouder and prouder of the growth and beauty of their capital city, whose tax payers have said to their mayor and commissioners, "Well done thou good and faithful servant." Jackson has a population of forty-two thousand. Its assessed valuation is $40,000,000.

Taxes Are Reduced In Coahoma County

The state tax commission has agreed to reduce first-class cultivated lands in Coahoma county from $52 to $46 per acre, which will be a saving to cotton growers of the county of 12.2 per cent, according to M. J. Bouldin, president of the board of supervisors.

Bouldin said that a reasonable reduction will be made on timber lands with valuations placed at approximately $5 to $6 an acre outside of levees, while inside the levees the lands will be at the rate of $15 an acre.

AGRICULTURAL DEPT. Kiln High School

Seven years ago, the trustees of Kiln High School, realizing that timber was soon to be gone in Hancock county that farming must come to be the chief remunerative industry, or be the basis of such industry, petitioned the State Board of Vocational Education for financial aid in putting the Agricultural Department in Kiln High School. This aid was secured and for six years the school has taught agriculture. The State and Federal government gave $1,200 yearly for this department. The department has 100 volumes of textbooks in agriculture, has more than 250 State and Federal farmers bulletins, has five sets of charts, numbering around 60 illustrations in all, has a terracing outfit, a soil laboratory outfit, has a filing cabinet where all records and reports of the department are filed; has a farm shop building equipped with a forge, anvil, grindstone, medal drill, vices, hammers, saws, squares, brace and bits, blow torch, soldering outfit, and one set of awls for leather work, worth near $250.

The department purposes to teach the students at school, and to supervise project work for them at home, also to benefit the farmers by

Maccabees Add Another Victory to Their List

The Bees swarmed again Sunday afternoon on the local diamond by defeating the McHenry team 8 to 2. Collier had perfect control of the ball and held the Stone county boys with but a few scattered hits. The game was very interesting as there was no one scored until the 4th inning when the Bees scored the first run and repeated in the 5th, chalking up four more runs. McHenry was allowed two runs in the 7th inning. Again the Bees crossed home plate three more times totaling 8 runs. The longest hit in the game was made by Collier who sloped the ball for a three base run. N. Ladner on base.

giving information regarding growing crops, livestock, fruit, etc., spraying and pruning trees, doctoring livestock, terracing and improving the land, and in every way possible help build an agricultural community. The people are realizing more and more that the department is here to help them, and are using the services of the teacher more each year. There are many ways in which he can be used when called on and when the people cooperate to do things as they are being done.

Some of the work of the Agricultural class this year includes making 30 book cases for their homes, and teachers, making 24 screen doors and windows for people in the community, making a dressing room for the boys athletic department, making 12 bulletin cases for the agricultural department, making a foods cabinet for the home economics department, making 33 hurdles for the track team, and making one large and ten small signs for the School Agricultural Demonstration.

The teacher, with the class assisting has pruned 100 peach trees, 70 pear trees, and 6 grapes. The class sprayed 15 fig and pear trees. Has encouraged the planting of 50 pecans, 30 pears, and 100 satsumas. Has bought 5,000 cabbage plants, 2,000 onion plants, and 5,000 strawberry plants for people in the community. Has terraced three farms totaling 440 acres, has laid off rows for two acres of sweet potatoes, assisted farmers in laying off rows and planting four acres of cucumbers, and has examined and treated two sick horses and six cows. Has taken farm surveys of 15 farms in the community. Has top-worked 45 pecans, vaccinated 100 hogs and made one potato grader.

The Community organization, an organ of the Agricultural Department, put on a Fair in the community where livestock and crop products were shown. Near 1,000 people attended the Fair. The organization was instrumental in signing growers of 16 acres of cucumbers; buying a community canner for use by the people in the community, and signed up nine gardeners to grow produce to can under the direction of a trained Home Economics teacher; signed three farmers to grow cotton and corn demonstrations. Had monthly meetings where speakers like Mr. Anderson, from Poplarville Experiment Station, Mr. Green of McNeill Experiment Station, and Mr. J. W. Geraty, of Picayune Farmers Marketing organization, bring helpful messages. Has given one free picture show dealing with fertilizers. Had a livestock judging demonstration and contest on the day of the Fair. The agricultural class and three farmers went to Poplarville to study experiments there. A night class was organized to continue for ten lessons for adult farmers.

The recreational functions of the class include a hunting trip by the class, a public dinner at the Fair, a Planters dinner in February, a Project Boys dinner, and the Father and Son banquet which has come to be a custom of the department.

KNOW Your South and be a Partner in its Growth

Memphis

Industrial Capital of the Mid-South

is an expression that takes on new meaning since natural gas has been assured within a year for every fuel demand in manufacturing and heating. Aside from being the metropolitan center of the richest agricultural area on the North American continent, Memphis is the center of the world's hardware lumber. As development of the largest inland cotton market in the world.

Cheap fuel, a plentiful labor supply, proximity to abundant raw materials, and unexcelled transportation facilities are factors expected to bring to Memphis within the next five years a solid, substantial industrial growth unsurpassed in the City's history or in the history of any other southern city. A population of 300,000 in five years is the foregone conclusion of coldly analytical business men.

Memphis is the distribution center for a vast rich territory in the very heart of the South. The City is the largest wholesale grocery center of the South. It ranks third among the drug and chemical markets of the world. Every need of the southern merchant can be filled in the Memphis market.

Memphis is a good city in which to live. Its climate compares favorably with that of other southern cities. It has the largest artesian water plant in the world. Its educational facilities are of the best. Organized recreational and social activities, (golf etc.) assure citizens and visitors of ample diversion from business cares.

ALL the world swims in Jantzen's

© Jantzen

THROUGHOUT North and South America and at the pools and shores of other lands, Jantzen's are notably popular with folks who swim.

Indeed, "swimming's the thing" these days almost everywhere. And it's so much easier to swim in a Jantzen—warm, snug, flexible. You'll marvel at the matchless... wrinkleless fit.

Jantzen material, consisting entirely of long-fibred wool, is tightly knitted by a process called Jantzen-stitch. It is extremely elastic.

And Jantzen's system of sizing by weight assures you the right size to start with. We have all the popular colors and styles in every size. And being dyed-in-the-wool, they're color-fast.

MIRACLE SOLID GROWTH FOUND NEAR ORLEANS

Improvements at Lake Shore, Clermont Harbor, Waveland and Bay St. Louis Revolutionary In Improvement

Under title "Miracle of Solid Growth Found Near New Orleans," appearing in the columns of the New Orleans Tribune, James M. Thomson, publisher, is printing a series of six articles.

In Monday morning's issue we find one of the series dealing with the Mississippi Gulf Coast, from which The Sea Coast Echo reproduces extracts. It is a fact that the Mississippi Gulf Coast is spending "tens of millions of dollars in actual cash" in improvements, and a considerable part of this sum is spent in this immediate section.

Mr. Thomson has not overdrawn the picture. The extracts, which follow, are interesting.

"The Gulf Coast itself is an almost completely changed part of the world. Seawalls have been built along almost the entire water front. These are attractive and they insure waterfront permanence. What is better is the building of some hundreds of miles of good roads in Mississippi, both along the water front and back of the water front. The waterfront roads now appear to be all hard surfaced. This means safe and dustless travel. A year or two ago a small ferry held one up at Bay St. Louis. Today a fine hard surfaced road at Bay St. Louis connects with the bridge and one runs over the bridge in four or five minutes. This must save half an hour's time as opposed to the old trip."

"Improvements are taking place at Clermont Harbor, at Waveland, and at Bay St. Louis. I had no opportunity to view these on the present trip. These sections are all particularly accessible to New Orleans, both by train and motor route. At some future time I want to have an opportunity of making a careful study of their improvements."

"Regarding the Gulf Coast itself the changes which have taken place there in four or five years are revolutionary. The Coast today is a modern, clean-cut, up-to-date, year-round resort. It has practically every facility which is needed for the comfort and convenience of those

Moments of Emotion and Pathos Mingled With Comedy in 'Happiness Ahead'

In a picture decidedly different from anything in which she has appeared in the past, Colleen Moore, winsome First National star, comes to the A. & G. Theatre next Sunday and Monday in her latest starring picture, "Happiness Ahead."

Although this production provides her with every opportunity to display her excellent flair for comedy, Miss Moore will also be seen in moments of deep drama, in which she is said to have proven an unusually capable actress.

"Happiness Ahead," is the story of a little country girl who marries a city card-sharp, believing him to be an entirely honest young business man. The manner in which she discovers the truth and the subsequent action of the principal characters, gives "Happiness Ahead," a plot which is unique in the extreme. Edmund Love plays the chief supporting role in "Happiness Ahead," which was written by Edmund Goulding. Other members of the supporting cast are Lilyan Tashman, Edythe Chapman, Charles Sellon, Robert Elliott and Virginia Sale. John McCormick produced "Happiness Ahead," which William A. Seiter directed from a scenario prepared by Benjamin Glazer.
